

Constitution Day at Washington & Jefferson College

Constitution Day is celebrated annually on September 17. This day provides an opportunity for Americans to celebrate this important document by participating in activities in communities around the country. You can discover more about Constitution Day by visiting <http://www.constitutionday.com>, and you can join in the celebration locally by taking part in happenings on our campus.

Past events held on the campus have included:

- Traditional displays in the U. Grant Miller Library
- Twitter posts from the college focusing on the United States Constitution and its amendments
- Films focusing on various topics related to the Constitution and Supreme Court
- Scavenger hunts to find clues about the Constitution
- Voter Registration Drives
